Curriculum Description: Post-Graduate Program in Specialist Nursing-Anesthesia Care, Institute Of Health Care Science, University of Gothenburg, Gothenburg, Sweden

The program involves 60 higher education credits, of which clinical education constitutes 16.5 higher education credits. All courses within the program are offered at an advanced level, and requires full-time studies. The local profile of the Program in Specialist Anesthesia Nursing is based on the patient-based research that is pursued at the Institute of Health and Care Sciences.

The program integrates knowledge from nursing science, medical science, social and behavioral science. The distribution is specified in the respective syllabus.

The program consists of the following courses within the main area of nursing care:

- OMA 100: Advanced nursing practice: anesthesia care, 7.5 credits (Introduktion to specialized nurse anesthesia care)
- OMA 110: Advanced nursing practice in anesthesia care in outpatient surgery, 7.5 credits
- OMA 120: Advanced nursing practice in anesthesiological care in complex care of needs, 7.5 credits
- OMA 130: Advanced nursing practice, transition processes in anesthesiological care, 15 credits
- OM007: Scientific Research Methods, 7,5 credits
- OM5320: Degree Project in Nursing with emphasis on anesthesia care, 15 credits (Research paper)